

Attention, Farmers!

If you have more oats or wheat than you need we will exchange anything we have for it and allow you a good price.

We have several nice driving horses that we want to sell or trade for mules, also have nicest line of buggies and carriages in the upper part of the State, which we want to sell or exchange for good sound mules.

We will guarantee more for cotton to be delivered this fall as part payment on buggies and carriages.

We Are The Farmers' Friend Try Us and Be Convinced

Who paid the most for cotton last fall? If you don't know, ask your neighbor! We bought more cotton at ten cents a pound than any other concern in Anderson county. We did this simply to help our customers.

Let us paint and repair your buggy. We have a first-class rubber tire outfit, use best material and guarantee our price and quality of work. This department is in charge of an expert. Call around and let's do business together. We will appreciate you trade.

Yours very truly,

J. J. Fretwell

Says Germans Crucified Canadians.

George Gordon Moore.

George Gordon Moore, just arrived from London on a visit to his old home in Detroit, made this statement in an interview.

Young Canadian officers have been crucified by the Germans. They have been nailed to the village crosses. The crucifixes the German army has practised since the outbreak of the war would make any of our Indian wars of bygone days look like a condition of Utopian peace.

"General French and I were alone, having dinner, when word was brought of the first use of gas by the Germans at the battle of Ypres. Our people ought to see the victims. Burning at the stake is humane in comparison. It only shows that this country would have to face if there were war. It is a signal to get ready."

The valor of the Canadian troops has won for them a place in the history of Great Britain. They are among the world's greatest fighters. When gas was used by the Germans the allies' front line wavered and fell, the southern troops beating a hasty retreat and leaving the Canadians all but surrounded. They had to turn and fire the other way. They fought for hours and fought so courageously until reinforcements came that they saved the day."

BOY RAN AWAY

Father is Much Worried and is Looking for Him.

Mr. Lee Smith of 713 West End avenue, this city, is advertising in this issue of the Intelligencer in an effort to locate his little 9 year old son, Willie, who ran away from home last Thursday afternoon.

The little fellow was wearing a black cap, black coat and trousers, was barefooted and is described as having blue eyes and light colored hair.

His father states that his boy was in the habit of getting on wagons and riding to the country. He is much worried and offers to pay liberally for information that will lead to his son's whereabouts.

PENDLETON CIVIC LEAGUE GIVES PLAY

"The Suffragettes Convention" Presented to Crowded House—Proceeds For School.

The civic league presented a play, "The Suffragettes Convention," before a crowded house Thursday night. The suffragettes and guests, the anti-suffragettes marched through the hall with banners flying and took their places on the stage. There followed a most laughable, and enjoyable hour and a half, where the suffragettes and the anti-suffragettes, told jokes, and read poems, or short spicy articles relating to suffrage, the way to manage husbands, and the way to get them. The ladies who took part were to be congratulated on their acting, which was most spirited, and excellently well done. Mrs. Susie Sharp as chairman of the suffragettes, was particularly good, and Mrs. Ralph Watkins, as the old maid was delightfully funny. The one lone man in the play, the hard worked husband of one of the militant ladies, was cleverly impersonated by Mr. Walter Aull.

A good sum of money was realized, which will go towards putting the new seats in the school hall, a much needed improvement.

In the very bad electric storms a day ago the lightning played in a most curious manner, around over and through the house of Mr. Mays, it knocked the kitchen chimney to pieces, tore the stove pipe apart, then scattered through the garret, poked a hole in the ceiling of every room, then slid out on the piazza and wrecked one of the posts. No one was injured.

One of the farmers living near the river, has to row out to his barn in a bateau. His place is water bound. An entertainment is to be given week after next, for the benefit of the church park. Though the land is owned by the Episcopal church, and the work is being done by the Sunday School Guild, the park is to be open to the ladies and children of the town.

DEATHS

JAMES BEWLEY WEBB

Little Son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Webb Dies After Brief Illness.

James Bewley, the 23 months old little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Webb, died yesterday afternoon, after a illness, at their home on West Market street.

The little boy had been ill only four weeks. Everything the physicians tried and loving and tender hands could do to save the child's life was done, but was of no avail, and the little fellow's suffering was ended when his soul went back to God.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at the home at 5 o'clock conducted by the Rev. O. L. Martin. The following young men will serve as pallbearers: Ben Cromer, Harmon Geiger, Charles Sullivan and Henry Ferguson.

The sincerest sympathy of the community goes out to the stricken family in their bereavement. James was a bright little baby and gave every promise of developing into a splendid boy. He had endeared himself to a number of people outside of the family and their grief at his taking away is the deepest.

Funeral Invitation.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Webb are respectfully invited to attend the funeral services of their little son, James Bewley Webb, at their home on West Market street this (Sunday) afternoon at 5 o'clock.

In Memoriam.

On June 26th, a shadow was cast over the home of Mr. Gus McGill at 354, when the unheard voice said, "Come," to his daughter, Lella, at the age of 18 years, a gentle and which had grown up blooming into a beautiful woman.

We all miss her,
Lella with words so few,
And smile so sweet
As her friends
She could greet.
We loved her,
You we loved her,
But angels loved her more,
And they have sweetly called her
On yonder shining shore.
The golden gates were opened,
A costly voice said come,
And with favorable mission
She calmly entered home.
—An Aunt.
